Consultant Orthopaedic Surgeon.
www.kneeandsportsinjuryclinic.co.uk

I am a Consultant Orthopaedic Surgeon with a special interest and recognised excellence in Soft Tissue and Joint Replacement Knee Surgery. I have many awards, scholarships and fellowships and have published and lectured extensively both nationally and internationally. I have a wide training and experience including recent NHS working in the management of general trauma and complex peri-prosthetic knee trauma. This included contributing to the design and implementation of fundamental changes to clinic practice in a major NHS teaching hospital during the first wave of the Covid-19 pandemic. I have a wide experience of management, clinical governance, team working, professional representation and working as an expert opinion. I also have recent experience of audit, appraisal, research, teaching and training in the NHS environment.
